

Affiliated Membership of the European Holiday Home Association

THE European Holiday Home Association, EHHA, is the European industry alliance working to represent and promote the interests of its members.

THE EHHA wants to raise the quality and reputation of the industry through network, education and policy dialogue.

Affiliated members are invited companies within the holiday home and short-term rental industry working in Europe which want to engage in business and in shaping the future of the industry on a European level.

Membership Terms

- Compliance with European and local laws and legislation
- Membership of relevant national or regional trade association in the company's area
- Recommendation from a EHHA Member or from the EHHA Board of directors

Membership Benefits

- Weekly newsletters, invitations for EHHA events, the general assembly, Holiday Home Award, etc.
- Right to use the EHHA brand on presentation material online and offline as a stamp of quality and sign of industry support
- Networking opportunities with other EHHA members through meetings, webinars and industry presentations

New members receive a welcoming package including: the company name featured on the EHHA members list, newsflash and presentation on Social Media to all members about the new company.

Read more on www.ehha.eu

Thank you for making the industry stronger together!